Parson Carey began the interview. He declared there was an unusual amount of declared there was an unusual amount of race autagonism in Chicago at present, following the recent election; said one man was in the hospital as a result of a fight growing out of the disturbed state of feeling and a lecture by Senator Tillman would only inflame the feeling.

Carey shook his head slowly, and said one word: "Maybe."
"What do you mean? Only Jeath will prevent him," replied Mrs. Keeler.
Bentley took upon the lines of the drams. "There are legal ways, Mrs.

Keeler," he said. "There are only three public speakers whom we want to stop," said Carey. "They are Vardaman, the Governor of Mississippi: John Temple Graves and Tillman, the archbishop of opposition to the advancement of our race, the man who would strip the colored man of all intellectual qualities and make him out

FRANCE AND THE VATICAN. The church situation in France is becoming more sensitive daily. According to information from reliable quarters, Cardinal Richard yesterday received the Pope's definite instructions relative to De-cember 11, when assessments will be made. There is the keenest desire to know their nature, but they have not been published. However, word has come unequivocally from Rome to some interested circles that the Pope personally is much more inclined to a pacific, liberal, and conciliatory attitude toward France than has been generally supposed, or would be judged from his encyclical, but Cardinal Merry del Vai is determined to ROSICA Cardinal Merry del Val is determined to prevent him from yielding, if possible. Word has also come, on what appears to be good authority, that American prelimber to be good authority, that American prelimber to the Pope their

It is also said that Cardinal Satolli has absorbed American ideas to the extent that he has added himself to those counseling the Pope to a conciliatory attitude,

The church and state conflict has given rise to a curious dispute between the mayor and vicar of Canourgie, department of Lozere, where the municipal council, taking advantage of the law permitting it to manage funerals as regards the part occurring outside the church, bought a hearse for the use of the people at a cost of 6 francs per funeral until the whole cost -800 francs-should be paid, when the vehicle could be used without any payment whatsoever. The hearse, not being consecrated and not cariying a cross, the vicar refused to allow it to enter the church grounds. To this the mayor responded with an order forbidding the church hearse to enter the streets. Hence, at each funeral, the council's hearse is used to the en trance of the church, where the coffin is transferred to the church hearse, entail-Prices range from $10 to | ing an extra cost of 2 francs. The Publisher's Claims Sustained

UNITED STATES COURT OF CLAIMS The Publishers of Webster's International Dictionary allege that It "is, in fact, the popular Unabridged thoroughly re-odited in every detail, and vastly enriched in every part, with the purpose of adapting it to meet the larger and severer requirements of another generation."

and severe requirements of another generation."

We are of the opinion that this allegation most clearly and accurately describes the work that has been necomplished and the result that has been reached. The Dictionary, as it now stands, has been thoroughly redited in every detail, has been corrected in every part, and is admirably alapted to meet the larger and severer requirements of a seneration which denands more of popular philological knowledge than any generation that the world basever contained.

It is perhaps needless to add that we refer to the dictionary in our judicial work as of the highest authority in necuracy of definition; and that in the future as in the past it will be the source of constant reference.
